Cotswold Sculptors Association

Very first meeting

1st August 2017
John Lewis Café
Cribbs Causeway, Bristol
10:30 am

Founder members:

Debs Harrison – Stone sculptor (http://www.debsharrison-sculptor.co.uk/)
Cameron Scott – Wood sculptor (http://www.cameronscottart.co.uk/)
Debs Paproska Cole – Figurative sculptor (https://dpcsculpture.com/)

Suggested Group Aims:

- For fine artists who produce sculpture (any material)
- For sculptors who mainly, but not exclusively, live in the Cotswolds
- To organise and exhibit at exhibitions
- To have a website for marketing member's work and forthcoming CSA exhibitions
- To share information (networks, recommendations, sources of materials, techniques etc.)
- To visit one another's studios
- To work together for sales opportunities (e.g. Local fairs, London Art Fairs etc.)
- To be a Critical Friend
- To socialise
- To encourage pro-active membership

Actions:

1. Offer a personal invitation to other sculptors whose work we admire, to attend the next meeting (16:00, Wednesday 23rd August 2017 @ Dauncey's Mill, Uley Gloucestershire GL11 5BT – directions available by email on request)
2. Form a committee
3. Ask other groups about: organisation, roles, membership criteria, printing and publicity costs, banking practices. etc
4. Explore website options
5. Explore a brand logo for CSA
6. Open a bank account